

Extended Enterprise Learner – Account Creation and Update

This job aid provides step-by-step instructions on how a State of Oregon partner can create and update an Extended Enterprise Learner account in Workday.

Why this is important to Partners of the State of Oregon

Workday Learning replaced iLearnOregon on June 16, 2021. To continue taking state-offered trainings for licensure, continuing education, job requirements and more, partners and other affiliates of the state need to create a Workday Learning account as described.

Create an Extended Enterprise Learner Account in Workday

- 1. Access the Workday Learning External Portal at the following link: https://workdaylearning.dasapp.oregon.gov/
- 2. From the Register screen, fill-in the fields to create a Workday Learning account:

- b. Though not required, a middle name will help identify your account faster when needing support.
- c. Email address can only connect to one Workday account.
- d. For the Affiliation box, choose the agency you primarily work with. In most cases, that will be the Oregon Health Authority (listed as Health Authority) or the Oregon Department of Human Services (listed as Human Services). Despite the instructions on the form, please do NOT choose State of Oregon without first speaking with your primary contact person at the State.

- 3. When finished, click the Register button.
- 4. Confirm and finalize your registration. Check your email. You will receive 3 emails as you finish this process. All emails will be sent to the email address used to register your account.

b. After you confirm your registration in the first email, you will receive another email (#2) providing your Workday username. Your username is also referred to as your EEL number. It is important that you remember this username, as you will use it to log into your Workday Learning account.

c. At about the time you get email #2, you will receive a final email. This email (#3) will contain your temporary password.

5. Log into your Workday account with your username (from email #2) and temporary password (from email #3). Use the URL provided in either email to access the Workday login page.
