

Measles is Spreading

When to seek medical care

Measles starts with a fever, cough, runny nose, or red, watery eyes, followed by a rash on the head or neck that spreads down the body.

If you think you have measles, get medical care.
Measles symptoms can worsen over time and serious complications can occur.