<sup>1</sup> WIC infants are considered 'fully breastfed' until the introduction of formula. Data include infants who turned 3, 6, or 12 months during 2018, depending on the measure. Note: the breastfeeding question used to determine exclusivity changed in 2015 and the calculation to determine exclusivity was updated to include infants who did not initiate breastfeeding.

*The 2018 data are combined with 2017 to protect confidentiality if there were fewer than 50 infants total.
