

Oregon Public Meetings Law - Complaint Form

Violations of Oregon Public Meetings Law

There are mandatory prerequisites for submitting Public Meetings Law complaints to the Oregon Government Ethics Commission (OGEC). These prerequisites also apply to executive session complaints. If you fail to satisfy the mandatory prerequisites before filing your complaint with OGEC, the OGEC has stated that it will dismiss your complaint.

If you are comfortable addressing your public meetings law concern directly with the Health Licensing Office (HLO) instead of filing a formal complaint, then the HLO invites you to do so. However, if this is not possible or if your concerns remain unresolved, the Oregon Government Ethics Commission (OGEC) has the authority to enforce public meetings laws.

The Oregon Government Ethics Commission (OGEC) offers a complaint process to submit alleged violations of Oregon public meetings law. Information about the process and frequently asked questions can be found at: <https://www.oregon.gov/ogec/public-records/Pages/Complaints.aspx>.

In accordance with the mandatory prerequisite of filing a written grievance with the public body before filing your complaint with OGEC, you can submit the "Oregon Public Meetings Law – Complaint Form" (this form) to Josh Page through one of the following methods:
