Application for Temporary Licensure - Supervisory Sign Language Interpreter

As of January 1, 2024, all individuals who perform sign language interpretation services must hold a license issued by HLO unless certain exceptions are met pursuant to HB 2696 \(2023\), Section 8.

Initially, HLO will issue temporary sign language interpreter licenses under its broad authority free of charge. This will allow the Board of Sign Language Interpreters (Board) time to adopt rules determining minimum qualifications for each license. Individuals holding a temporary sign language interpreter license must qualify for a permanent license and pay the required application and licensing fees by June 7, 2024, to continue to provide sign language interpreting services.

Important Information: Holding a temporary license under HLO does not guarantee that an individual will be granted a license under the Board.
