As described by the FDA, a device is a product intended to cure, mitigate, treat or prevent disease or affect the structure or function of the body. The FDA considers claims that indicate penetration or some effect beyond the stratum corneum into living layers of skin by such products to be evidence of a firm’s intent to affect the structure or function of the body. The FDA does not consider a chemical product to be a device. Section (4) of this rule sets forth the meaning of “device” in accordance with the federal law and the FDA’s interpretation of that law.

(4) A device is a product intended to cure, mitigate, treat or prevent disease or affect the structure or function of the body. (i) Facilitate exfoliation of the skin (i.e. disruption of the stratum corneum);

(ii) Improvement of appearance of the skin;

(iii) Give skin a smoother look and feel; or

(iv) Give skin a luminous look.

(5) An individual certified in esthetics is prohibited from using devices as defined in subsection (4) in this rule.

(6) A person who does not hold a valid practitioner certificate from the Board is prohibited from providing esthetic services using any type of device defined under this rule unless otherwise authorized to do so by statute.
