Oregon Psilocybin Advisory Board Client Bill of Rights

Proposed Client Bill of Rights for group discussion:

Clients receiving psilocybin services in Oregon have the following rights:

1. To be treated with dignity and respect while receiving psilocybin services.
2. To be fully informed of, and helped to understand, the risks associated with psilocybin services.
3. To make decisions autonomously, free of coercion and undue influence.
4. To privacy and confidentiality and to control how their information is processed and used.
5. To decline participating in research or sharing information with third parties, except as specified in the exceptions to client confidentiality in Measure 109.
6. To a full explanation of all costs associated with receiving psilocybin services before receiving those services.
7. To access their client records after providing reasonable notice to a facilitator or service center.
8. To request a private room in which to receive psilocybin services.
9. To be monitored and supported by a licensed facilitator for the duration of psilocybin services until it is safe for the client to be transported home or transferred to the care of a responsible friend or family member.
10. To receive psilocybin services from the same licensed facilitator for the duration of those services.
11. To access service centers, therapy rooms, and psilocybin services that are welcoming and accessible to people with disabilities.
12. To have access to a clean, single occupancy restroom for the duration of psilocybin services.
13. To discuss this Bill of Rights with licensed facilitators and service center operators without facing discrimination or retaliation
14. To report violations of this Bill of Rights to the Oregon Health Authority, or other appropriate governing body, without facing discrimination or retaliation.
