

OREGON EMS & TRAUMA SYSTEMS REINSTATEMENT OF AN EXPIRED LICENSE

EXPIRED LESS THAN 1-YEAR

EMR	Proof of current NREMT certification or , completed CEU (Reference Appendix 1)
EMT	Proof of current NREMT certification or , completed CEU (Reference Appendix 1)
ADVANCED	Proof of current NREMT certification or , completed CEU (Reference Appendix 1)
INTERMEDIATE	Proof of current NREMT certification or , completed CEU (Reference Appendix 1)
PARAMEDIC	Proof of current NREMT certification or , completed CEU (Reference Appendix 1)

EXPIRED MORE THAN 1-YEAR BUT LESS THAN 2-YEARS

EMR	You must retake an EMR course and pass the cognitive and psychomotor examinations.
EMT	OPTION 1: Proof of current NREMT certification or , OPTION 2: Proof of AHA BLS Provider or equivalent, complete EMT refresher training program accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Prehospital Continuing Education (CAPCE), and successfully complete the National Registry’s cognitive assessment examination for EMT’s.
ADVANCED	OPTION 1: Proof of current NREMT certification or , OPTION 2: Proof of AHA BLS Provider or equivalent, BTLS or PHTLS, successfully complete National Registry’s AEMT cognitive assessment examination.
INTERMEDIATE	Successfully complete a simulated cardiac arrest management skill evaluation for EMS Medical Director or person approved by the Authority, proof of AHA BLS Provider or equivalent, BTLS or PHTLS course, and successfully complete the National Registry’s AEMT cognitive assessment examination.
PARAMEDIC	OPTION 1: Proof of current NREMT certification or , OPTION 2: Proof of ACLS, BTLS or PHTLS, APLS or PALS or PEPP or NALS, complete the U.S. Department of Transportation, National Highway Traffic Safety Administrations, 2001 Paramedic National Standard Curriculum Refresher Training Program and successfully complete the National Registry’s paramedic cognitive assessment examination.

- ** Licenses expired for two years or more at the EMT through paramedic level, must complete a “New License” application and show proof of current National Registry certification.
- ** Licenses expired for two years or more at the EMT-Intermediate level may reinstate at the Advanced EMT level if previously certified at the AEMT level by the National Registry. Proof of current National Registry certification at the AEMT level will be required.
- ** EMT-Intermediates who have been expired two years or more, who have never held an AEMT certification with the National Registry must reinstate at the EMT level. Proof of current National Registry certification at the EMT level will be required.