

Application to the Oregon Consumer Advisory Council

Due by May 27, 2016

Background: The Oregon Consumer Advisory Council (OCAC) makes recommendations to the Oregon Health Authority (OHA). The Council's purpose is to provide input on behavioral health policy and services. The Council wants to provide input from a variety of views within the consumer community.

The OCAC is in statue. The Oregon Administrative Rules governing the OCAC membership are:

- (1) Members shall be appointed by the Director's Designee, considering OCAC recommendations, and shall be appointed for a two-year term following a written acceptance of the offer.
- (2) CAC shall consist of between 15 and 25 consumers, and selection shall strive to represent:
  - (a) A broad range of ages, *parents or guardians of children, **youth in transition (ages 16 to 25), adults age 55 or older;
  - (b) A variety of cultures and ethnicities;
  - (c) An approximate division of gender; and
  - (d) A balance of geographic areas within the state.
- (3) OHA may appoint any member for a second two-year term.
- (4) No person shall be excluded from serving as a member of CAC due to affiliation with any organization or institution, or on the basis of race, ethnic origin, religious affiliation, gender, age, disability, or sexual orientation."

OHA defines the following for use in membership selection:

Oregon Statute ORS 430.073 describes a consumer as "a person who has received, or is receiving mental health or addiction services."

* A Youth or Qualifying Parent is either a person who is 15 years of age or younger, and has parental or guardian consent to sit on the OCAC, or the parent of a child currently 15 years of age or younger, who has received or is receiving, mental health or addiction services.

** Young Adult in Transition is a young adult between the ages of 16 and 25 (if the person is under 18 years of age, they must have parent or guardian consent to sit on OCAC)

6. The Oregon Consumer Advisory Council provides input, feedback, and recommendations to the Oregon Health Authority (OHA) on behavioral health policy and services. How would you help the Council fulfill this role? Please provide specific examples with explanations.
7. What assets, insights, and/or experiences will you to bring to the Council? Please provide specific examples with explanations.
8. Describe your current and prior experience serving on councils or committees.
  - 8a. Share your strengths connected to your experience working with these groups.
  - 8b. Share your challenges connected to your experience working on councils or committees. Please provide specific examples with explanations.

NOTE: If you do not have prior experience serving on a council or committee, please mark        No Prior Experience. Respond to the questions above based on your volunteer, employment, community, or lived experience relevant to working with a group of individuals with diverse backgrounds and viewpoints to gather input, provide feedback, reach consensus and work towards common goals.

9. Please, tell us how you see your service with OCAC fitting with your personal journey of wellness, recovery, growth and leadership development. What benefits do you hope to gain through your service as a member of the Council?
10. OCAC meets in Salem on the second Wednesday of every even-numbered month. Meetings start at 1:00 p.m. and end at 4:00 p.m. Council members may attend the meetings by telephone (toll free line). Do you commit to attend council meetings either in-person or by phone if you are appointed to the Oregon Consumer Advisory Council?
