Correction of Error Message Translation in Automated Assessments

Within an automated assessment, if a contact selects a future date for the question When did you first start noticing symptoms? and then tries to submit, they will receive an error message.

Previously, the error message was displaying in English for all automated assessment languages:

i 由于以下原因, 无法提交该窗体:
Date entered cannot be a future date.

Now, if a contact attempts to select a future date for this question and then submit, they will receive an error message in the appropriate language:

- Changes have been made in Chinese (Cantonese), Chinese (Mandarin), Korean, Russian, and Vietnamese.
- The Spanish translation was already correct and was not changed.
