Discussion/Interpretation:

Please see the most current (3/27/14) updates that DMAP posted in the DMAP Worker Guide. The entire guide may not always be completely up-to-date with each guide revision made. If you have questions about other content, please contact DMAP and ask for the appropriate section manager.

- DMAP/Medicaid Overview – DHS/OHA Branch Offices -- Clarified text and add information about Branch 5503.
- OHP Medical Resources - Benefit packages -- Removed remaining references to the OHP Standard Benefit package that ended January 1, 2014
- MC Special Conditions-Exemption Codes Chart – Added incarcerated (INC) and substance use disorder (SUD); also see “Note” following the table.
- Client Rights and Responsibilities -- Billing clients – Clarifying instructions for when a client can and cannot be billed for services rendered.
- Copayments and Special Requirements -- Renamed section, obsolete information about premiums is removed. Added copayment exemptions -- Hospice clients, adults under 26 years of age in Substitute Care and in the Former Foster Care Youth Medical Program, and Breast and Cervical Cancer Treatment Program clients are no longer responsible to pay copayments for any OHP services.
