Oregon State Hospital to host job fair for new Junction City campus August 15

What: Job fair for Oregon State Hospital's Junction City campus

When: Thursday, August 15, noon to 8 p.m.

Where: Junction City High School, cafeteria, 1135 West Sixth St., Junction City

Oregon State Hospital will host a job fair for its new Junction City campus on Thursday, Aug. 15, from noon to 8 p.m., at the Junction City High School cafeteria located at 1135 West Sixth St.

Scheduled to open in the spring of 2015, the Junction City campus will be home to a 174-bed psychiatric facility that employs more than 500 staff. Hiring for the facility will begin in 2013 and continue through 2015. Those hired now will train and work at the Salem campus until the Junction City campus is completed and ready for occupancy in the spring of 2015.

Oregon State Hospital is currently recruiting for the following positions: registered nurses, licensed practical nurses, certified nursing assistants (mental health therapy technicians), psychologists, psychiatrists, social workers, mental health specialists, food services employees, security, office support, custodians, grounds and maintenance, rehabilitation staff and more.

In addition, WorkSource Oregon will host a combined workshop during the job fair. “First Impressions” and “Preparing for the Interview” will be offered from 2 to 3:30 p.m., and again from 6 to 7:30 p.m. Representatives from local educational institutions and transportation providers also will be available to answer questions.

Hospital leadership will be on hand throughout the day and available for media interviews upon request.

To apply for a position with Oregon State Hospital, please visit oregonjobs.org, click on “For Everyone” in the left-hand bar and enter keyword “Junction City.” Positions for the Junction City campus will be posted continuously through the completion of the new facility.
