

News release

February 12, 2014

Contact: Jonathan Modie, 971-246-9139, PHD.Communications@state.or.us

Future of Public Health task force meets Feb. 19 in Salem

What: The third public meeting of the Task Force on the Future of Public Health. Agenda items include:

- Review amended task force charter and updated work plan.
- Build understanding of Oregon's transformation landscape:
 - Determinants of health and health equity;
 - Health transformation principles and intersection with public health.
- Identify framing principles for the future of public health.
- Public comment period.

When: Wednesday, Feb. 19, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Where: Labor and Industries Building, 350 Winter St. NE, Conference Room B, Salem

Who: The Task Force on the Future of Public Health was created by Oregon HB 2348A to study the regionalization and consolidation of public health services, and the future of public health services in Oregon, to make recommendations for legislation.

The task force is made up of 15 members appointed by the Legislature, the Governor, and the directors of the Oregon Health Authority and Department of Human Services.

Details: Space is limited. To participate by phone, call 1-888-363-4734, and use code 295577. For more information about the meeting, contact Michael Tynan, policy officer, Oregon Health Authority, Public Health Division, at 971-673-1282.

(more)

The meeting site is accessible to persons with disabilities. Individuals requiring accommodation may request alternate formats, sign language interpreters, physical accessibility, or other reasonable accommodations by calling the Oregon Health Authority at 1-800-282-8096 at least 48 hours before the meeting.

#