

APPLICATION FOR A PERMIT TO IMPORT SACRAMENTAL WINE INTO OREGON

A religious organization in Oregon wanting to import wine into Oregon for sacramental use only and not for resale must obtain a permit from the OLCC.

A religious organization wanting to use wine already legally in Oregon for sacramental use only and not for resale does not need a permit from the OLCC.

To obtain a permit from the OLCC to import sacramental wine into Oregon, an authorized representative of the religious organization should complete this application and send it to the OLCC.

Name of Religious Organization: _____

Address: _____
(Number and Street)

(City) (Zip Code)

Name of Contact Person: _____

Phone Number: _____ Email: _____

Is the religious organization listed above a religious organization exempt from filing federal taxes under IRC Section 501(c)(3)?

- Yes. If yes, please attach a copy of your 501(c)(3) statement to this application.
- No. If no, the OLCC will not be able to approve this application.

By signing this application, I attest I am an authorized representative of the religious organization listed above, accept full responsibility for the importation of the wine, and certify that the wine is for sacramental use only and will not be sold.

Printed Name of Person Signing: _____

Signature: _____ Date: _____

This permit is valid only when signed by an OLCC representative. Once this application is signed by OLCC, it is proof of authority for the listed religious organization to import wine for sacramental purposes and for parties outside of Oregon to send it to the listed religious organization without an OLCC license or permit.
