Bottle Bill Redemption Center proposed in Wood Village

Wood Village, Ore. – The Oregon Liquor Control Commission has received an application for a Bottle Bill Redemption Center in Wood Village from the Oregon Beverage Recycling Cooperative.

The proposed site is located at 23345 NE Halsey St.

If approved, beverage containers will no longer be accepted at the following stores, but could be returned to the Halsey St. Redemption Center.

Fred Meyer, 22855 NE Park Lane
Safeway, 2501 SW Cherry Park Rd.
WalMart, 23500 NE Sandy Blvd.

The redemption center proposes to accept all types/brands of containers accepted under the Oregon Bottle Bill. The OLCC will approve a redemption center if it will provide a convenient service to consumers for the return of empty beverage containers.

The applicant proposes to be open seven days per week from 9:00 am to 7:00 pm in the summer, and from 9:00 am to 6:00 pm during the rest of the year. The proposal includes a 24-hour drop box for account holders. The center proposes to accept up to 200 containers per person per day cash refund and greater numbers for account holders who credit payment on a voucher. Special arrangements may be made to accept large quantities from fundraiser and donation accounts.

The complete application can be found at
