The Commission's ability to issue a full on-premises liquor license to for-profit private clubs came as the result of new legislation during the 2010 legislative session.

Hermiston, #1010, Trudi Seadorf

The commissioners approved the following liquor store relocation:

Astoria, #1167, relocating to 730 Bond St.; expected move is November 2010

Retail liquor agents are independent contractors; they are not state employees. The Retail Services Division of the OLCC works closely with liquor agents to help them understand and follow liquor regulations and store operating procedures.

The five citizen commissioners are the policy-making body of the OLCC. They meet monthly for one or two days to make decisions on liquor licenses, rules, contested case hearings and appointments of liquor store agents. Commission meetings are held every other month at OLCC's main office, 9079 SE McLoughlin Blvd., Room 103A in Portland. Subsequent months, the meetings are held via phone.
