OLCC special meeting on Alcoholic Energy Drinks

PORTLAND, Ore. – The Commissioners of the Oregon Liquor Control Commission are holding a special commission meeting Saturday, November 20 at 3:30pm. The attached agenda for tomorrow's meeting is regarding OLCC action on the recent FDA ruling concerning alcohol energy drinks.

Additional information received on OLCC's legal options concerning a possible ban on alcoholic energy drinks prompted the special meeting.

The meeting will take place in room 103A at the OLCC headquarters office, 9079 SE McLoughlin Blvd., Milwaukie, OR. Anyone wishing to provide testimony can sign up to do so prior to the start of the meeting. Those who wish to phone into the meeting can do so by calling 1-877-455-8695, passcode: 559953. The commission asks that anyone calling in please identify him/herself at the beginning of the meeting.

The five citizen commissioners are the policy-making body of the OLCC. They meet monthly for one or two days to make decisions on liquor licenses, rules, contested case hearings and appointments of liquor store agents. Commission meetings are held every other month at OLCC's main office, 9079 SE McLoughlin Blvd., Room 103A in Portland. Subsequent months, the meetings are held via phone. Agenda items can be obtained on-line at http://www.oregon.gov/OLCC/public_meetings.shtml
