OLCC Commissioners open three new liquor stores and approve four liquor stores to sell beer and wine under test program

PORTLAND, Ore. – At their monthly meeting on June 7, the Commissioners of the Oregon Liquor Control Commission voted to open new liquor stores in the following areas:

Beaverton-Barrows Rd
Damascus
Portland-Cascade Station

Applications will be accepted after OLCC staff place official notices for these openings. Retail liquor agents are independent contractors; they are not state employees. The Retail Services Division of the OLCC works closely with liquor agents to help them understand and follow liquor regulations and store operating procedures.

The Commissioners voted to appoint the following Retail Liquor Agents:

Tigard #1048 – Terry Neddeau
Portland-Hillsdale #1074 – Bruce Randall
Elgin #1079 – Warren Scott Ludwig
Springfield, East #1196 – Dorsey Greene
Medford, West #1210 – Robert Zepf

Retail liquor agents are independent contractors; they are not state employees. The Retail Services Division of the OLCC works closely with liquor agents to help them understand and follow liquor regulations and store operating procedures.

The Commissioners voted to approve the following retail liquor stores to convert from exclusive liquor stores to non-exclusive liquor stores. This is part of the test program approved by the commissioners to allow up to four exclusive liquor stores to sell beer and wine in addition to hard liquor. The test program also will allow up to four corporations to apply to be liquor agents.
