

News Release

Oregon Liquor Control Commission
9079 SE McLoughlin Blvd., Portland, OR 97222-7355
1-800-452-6522

For more information:

Christie Scott, Public Affairs Specialist, (503) 872-5002, (503) 928-0273
Christie.scott@state.or.us www.oregon.gov/olcc

Wednesday, November 12, 2014

Updated Frequently Asked Questions for Recreational Marijuana

PORTLAND, Ore. – After receiving emails and calls from the public, the Oregon Liquor Control Commission has added six new questions and answers to the Frequently Asked Questions section on OLCC's website, www.marijuana.oregon.gov.

Recreational Marijuana in General

Q: How can I get a job with OLCC in the new marijuana program?

A: OLCC posts job opportunities on the www.Oregonjobs.org website. Interested applicants can fill out a Job Interest Card to receive email alerts about job openings at OLCC. You can also sign up for email alerts about OLCC job opportunities through our website.

Personal Use

Q. Can a landlord tell you not to homegrow recreational marijuana in residence you are renting/leasing?

A. Measure 91 does not affect existing landlord/tenant laws.

Licensing

Q. Has OLCC started to accept license applications?

A. No. The measure requires OLCC to begin accepting license applications for recreational marijuana by January 4, 2016. We have not accepted any license applications at this time.

Q. When will OLCC accept license applications?

A. The measure requires OLCC to begin accepting license applications by January 4, 2016. We are not accepting any license applications for recreational marijuana at this time.

Q. How will OLCC decide who gets a license application?

A. The process for recreational marijuana license approval will be developed by the OLCC. We will gather the public's input through an open and transparent process. To keep up to date on opportunities to provide public input, click here

Q. If I want to apply for a recreational marijuana license, what should I do now?

A. We are not accepting any applications for recreational marijuana licenses at this time. To keep up to date on when the OLCC will begin accepting applications for the different license types, click here

After checking the Frequently Asked Questions on the website, the public can email additional questions to marijuana@oregon.gov. In the days immediately after the election, www.marijuana.oregon.gov received approximately 15,000 visits.

More than 2,800 people have subscribed to receive automatic email alerts about recreational marijuana through www.marijuana.oregon.gov. Anyone can sign up for free email alerts on recreational marijuana to receive the latest updates as they are available.

##