Portland, OR – This Thanksgiving holiday, make your holiday happenings complete by entering The Oregon Liquor Control Commission's second public drawing for rare and limited edition liquors. Opening tomorrow at midnight, the public drawing for the full lineup of Pappy Van Winkle and Buffalo Trace Distillery Antique Collection bourbons will run for 11 days, from midnight on Thursday, Nov. 22 until 11:00 pm on Sunday, Dec. 2.

OLCC receives special releases throughout the year, but there is a limit on quantities we receive from manufacturers and suppliers. The state has no control over how many bottles it receives each year. OLCC plans to use a public drawing to make available a portion of these rare or limited releases throughout each year.
