OLCC Commissioners Adopt Rules for Regulating Industrial Hemp Entering OLCC Regulated Marijuana System Stipulated Settlements for Recreational Marijuana Violations Approved

PORTLAND, Ore. – At its monthly meeting February 21, 2019 meeting the Commissioners of the Oregon Liquor Control Commission approved rules for regulating industrial hemp that enters into the OLCC regulated marijuana system.

The new industrial hemp rules implement the provisions of House Bill 4089 approved by the Oregon Legislature and signed into law in 2018. HB 4089 alters the way hemp items can enter the OLCC licensed system. The rule change allows for additional OLCC recreational marijuana license types to receive industrial hemp items from growers and handlers registered with the Oregon Department of Agriculture.

A key element of the rules requires that hemp items received by OLCC licensees be tracked using seed-to-sale tracking system; this means hemp items will be tracked using the same Cannabis Tracking System (CTS) required for marijuana and marijuana products.

The new hemp rules can be found here on the OLCC website.

The Commission also approved the following fines and/or marijuana license suspensions or license surrenders based on stipulated settlements:
