

BULL RUN DISTILLING COMPANY

In the spring of 2010, acclaimed Portland distiller, Lee Medoff, and business partner and chief enthusiast, Patrick Bernards, founded Bull Run Distilling Company along with a few trustworthy friends.

What began as a “what if” conversation between gentlemen one evening over cocktails evolved into a full-on crusade (as things sometimes do when spirits are involved).

After a couple of aspirin, hundreds of hours, and an emptied bank account, Bull Run Distilling Company turned from a whiskey-infused dream into a reality.

Fast forward to today, and Bull Run is part of a new group of artisans helping put Oregon craft spirits on the map with a line of spirits that stand as well neat as they do in your favorite cocktail.
