

VINN DISTILLERY

Vinn Distillery recipes have been in our family for well over seven generations. The Vinn family has been distilling alcohol to honor their ancestors, and for medicinal purposes, celebrations and everyday consumption. Back in the days of living in tiny villages in China and Vietnam, alcohol was not readily available so knowing how to make it was a necessity.

All Vinn products are available for purchase at the tasting room located in Southeast Portland's Distillery Row

Tracing the family tree, the Ly ancestors were originally from China. Four generations ago, they migrated to Quang Ninh Province, North Vietnam - just south of China's borders - hoping for a better life. The current generation brought it full circle when they were deported from Vietnam back to China in late 1978. Regardless of what country they lived in Vietnam, China, or the United States - they carried on the tradition of their ancestors by making Mijiu and Baijiu wherever they went.
