OREGON LIQUOR & CANNABIS COMMISSION

WAREHOUSE (WH) LICENSE PRIVILEGES
COMPARED TO
WHOLESALE MALT BEVERAGE and WINE (WMBW) LICENSE PRIVILEGES

	Wholesale Malt Beverage and Wine License	Warehouse License
Oregon Revised Statute (ORS)	471.235	471.242
OLCC License Fee	$550 annually	$200 annually
Manufacture malt beverage	No	No
Manufacture wine	No	Yes
Manufacture cider	No	No
Eligible to import malt beverage, wine, and cider into Oregon	• Yes. If importing from a party in another U.S. state, the party in the other U.S. state must hold CERA. • If importing from a party outside the United States directly into Oregon, the WMBW must hold CERA.	• Yes. If importing from a party in another U.S. state, the party in the other U.S. state must hold CERA. • If importing from a party outside the United States directly into Oregon, the WH must hold CERA.
Eligible to export malt beverage, wine, and cider out of Oregon (Oregon has no requirements to export; but the state or country outside of Oregon may have requirements)	Yes	Yes
Requirement for "privilege tax" bond with OLCC and pay "privilege tax"	Yes	Yes
Eligible to distribute malt beverages, wine, and cider to other OLCC licenses	Yes	Limited allowances: • For the following licenses: WMBW, Warehouse, Winery. Yes, all malt beverage, wine, and cider. • For the following licenses: a licensee of the OLCC authorized to sell wine or cider at retail. _Only_ wine and cider produced by an Oregon winery licensee and _only_ if the shipment is made pursuant to a sale to a winery license issued under ORS 471.223, a grower sales privilege license issued under ORS 471.227, or a wholesale malt beverage and wine license issued under ORS 471.235.
Eligible to sell malt beverage, wine, or cider for consumption on the premises	May not sell for consumption on the premises. However, may serve sample tastings as allowed by 471.235(1).	No, and may not allow any consumption on the premises.
Eligible to sell _malt beverages_ to individuals (non-OLCC licensees) in factory-sealed containers for consumption off the premises	Yes. However: • Not more than 9% alcohol by volume. • Not less than four gallons. • Sale must be completed at the WMBW licensed premises ("dock sale")	No
Eligible to sell _wine and cider_ to individuals (non-OLCC licensees) in factory-sealed containers for consumption off the premises	Yes, but not less than four gallons nor more than 55 gallons at any one time. The sale must be completed at the WMBW licensed premises ("dock sale")	No

OREGON LIQUOR & CANNABIS COMMISSION

WAREHOUSE (WH) LICENSE PRIVILEGES
COMPARED TO
WHOLESALE MALT BEVERAGE and WINE (WMBW) LICENSE PRIVILEGES

	Wholesale Malt Beverage and Wine License	Warehouse License
Eligible to obtain a "special event" license	No, unless an exception in ORS 471.396 applies	No, unless an exception in ORS 471.396 applies
Eligible to also obtain a Full On-Premises license	Yes, but only at a premises where the licensee also has a Brewery license.	No, unless an exception in ORS 471.396 applies
Eligible to also obtain a Limited On-Premises Sales license	No, unless an exception in ORS 471.396 applies	No, unless an exception in ORS 471.396 applies
Eligible to also obtain an Off-Premises Sales license	No, unless an exception in ORS 471.396 applies	No, unless an exception in ORS 471.396 applies
Eligible to also obtain a Wholesale Malt Beverage and Wine (WMBW) license	Yes	Yes
Eligible to also obtain a Warehouse license	Yes	Yes
Eligible to also obtain a Winery license	Yes	Yes
Eligible to also obtain a Distillery license	Yes	Yes
Eligible to deliver malt beverage, wine, or cider directly to individuals (non-OLCC licensees)	No	Yes, but only as allowed by 471.242(7) (fulfilling orders of licensees who store inventory at the WH premises).
Required to meet Alcohol Server Education and Service Permit requirements	No	No
Required to meet Liquor Liability Insurance requirements	No	No
Federal Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau (TTB) permit required by the OLCC	No	No