REPEAL: Temporary 847-035-0032 from OMB 5-2020

RULE TITLE: Emergency Medical Services Providers in the Event of an Emergency

NOTICE FILED DATE: 07/10/2020

RULE SUMMARY: The rulemaking makes permanent the temporary rule to provide flexibility in the scope of practice for emergency medical services (EMS) providers during periods of a declared emergency. The rule provides this flexibility only under a supervising physician's standing orders and within the protocols established by the State of Oregon EMS Medical Director or designee, subject to such limitations and conditions as the Governor or Oregon Medical Board may prescribe.

RULE TEXT:

In the event of an emergency declared by the Governor of Oregon, emergency medical services providers may assist in patient care as directed by the supervising physician's standing orders and within the protocols established by the State of Oregon EMS Medical Director, or a designee of the State of Oregon EMS Medical Director during the period of the declared emergency, subject to such limitations and conditions as the Governor or Oregon Medical Board may prescribe.
