MEMORANDUM FOR ORNG Personnel

SUBJECT: Fiscal Law Course Requirement

1. Background: At the end of FY16 the NGB/JA instructors for the Fiscal Law course at the Professional Education Center (PEC) cancelled all dates of training for FY17. These cancellations included the class dates hosted both at PEC and by individual states. Lack of funding caused NGB/JA to eliminate the ADOS position that performed this training function.

2. Issue: Fiscal Law course provides a basic understanding of financial management in the federal government and is a required class for select ORNG assignments that manage or oversee federal appropriations. ORNG personnel in these assignments must continue to complete this recurring training requirement despite NGB's failure to fund it. Oregon hosted a Fiscal Law course in FY16 with over 100 participants, who will not need to receive training again until FY19. The PEC hosted training is not available via ATRRS as of the date of this memorandum.

3. Solution: The alternative resource for Fiscal Law training is found online at: https://jagu.army.mil/webapps/portal/execute/tabs/tabAction?tab\_group\_id=22\_1
Troubleshooting issues with certificates may be resolved using Google Chrome versus Windows Internet Explorer browsers. Other connectivity issues can be routed to the Helpdesk for resolution. There is no fee for the course and it is open for anyone requiring Fiscal Law. Instructor-led classroom courses may become available in future years pending any change in funding at NGB/JA.

4. Personnel will retain the completion certificate from the course. Without the certificate, the training may need to be re-accomplished.
