

APPLICATION TO SERVE ON RULES ADVISORY COMMITTEE (RAC)

Submitting the application indicates your interest in serving on the RAC for the Oregon Public Defense Commission (OPDC). It also indicates your willingness to attend the meeting as needed. Applying does not guarantee being selected to serve on the RAC, as representations inclusive of all stakeholders and communities must be considered. You will be notified by our Rules Coordinator if you are selected to serve.

Applicant Information

Name:

Title:

Organization:

City:

State:

RAC meetings will be held virtually, either by conference call (audio only) and/or by Microsoft Teams (audio/video). When listing your phone and email contact information below, please provide the phone and email address you will be using to log into a virtual meeting if you are selected to serve as a RAC member.

Phone:

Email:

What is the duration of time you would be willing to serve as a RAC member?

Why are you interested in participating in the RAC process for OPDC?

Oregon Public Defense Commission is required to identify and consider the interest of communities and individuals likely to be impacted by rules. Please mark any boxes below that you represent.

Small business owner Professional organization Indigenous community Veteran community

People of color communities Rural communities Individuals with experience as a criminal defendant

Other, please specify _____

Please complete this form and email it to the Oregon Public Defense Commission Rules Coordinator at Admin.Rules@opdc.state.or.us. For questions about serving, please contact Jennifer Bell at the email address above or call 503-991-9417.