

Oregon Parks and Recreation Department welcomes the National Association of State Parks Volunteer Administrators Conference

NASPVA 2026

October 19-23

Tides of Service

Evolving Volunteer Programs Together

Leadership, Adaptability, and Impact

HALLMARK RESORT • NEWPORT, OREGON

744 SW Elizabeth St, Newport, OR

Questions? Please reach out to NASPVA.2026@OPRD.oregon.gov
stateparks.oregon.gov

JOIN NASPVA

The National Association of State Park Volunteer Administrators
A nationwide network for those leading volunteer programs in state parks.

WHY JOIN NASPVA?

State Representation

Ensure your state has a voice in shaping the future of volunteer engagement in parks.

Professional Development

Expand skills through peer learning and a bi-annual national conference.

Networking & Collaboration

Join online discussions and meetings with peers across the country on volunteer management topics.

Resource Sharing

Access and contribute real-world tools and materials developed by other state agencies.

Be Represented Get Involved

No matter your program's size or stage, NASPVA is here to support you.

TO JOIN

Send your state's program representative to:

Board Secretary, Christine Small:
christine.small@dep.state.fl.us

Sponsored by NASPD