• Lisa Sears, Commission Vice-Chair	• Mary Newcomb, OPRD Admin
• Peggy Drake, Commissioner	• Koren Tippet, OPRD Archaeologist
• Johnny Edwards, Commissioner	• Katie Henry, OHC Coordinator
• Milo Reed, Commissioner
• Sarah Silbernagel, Commissioner

1. Commission Business

- a) Welcome and Introductions (Information)
- b) Approval of October 10, 2024 Agenda (Action)

ACTION: Commissioner Reed moved to approve the October 10, 2024 agenda with the correction of the date at the top, Jesse Jackson is not able to attend, and the Bureau of Land Management Cemetery protection effort will take place prior to the Value of Heritage Resources in Community Recovery. Commissioner Sears seconded the motion. The motion passed, 6-0. (Topic starts at 7:35 and ends 9:04).

- a) Approval of July 28, 2024 Minutes (Action)

ACTION: Commissioner Sears moved to approve the July 18, 2024 minutes as presented. Commissioner Reed seconded the motion. The motion passed, 6-0. (Topic starts at 9:08 and ends 9:40).

2. Public Comment: (Information) This is the time for the public to address the Commission. (Topic starts at 9:41 and ends 15:00, Topic resumes at 1:31:08 and ends 1:37:32)

- a) Maureen Flanagan Battistella –Thanks for funding fire risk mitigation through tree removal at IOOF Cemetery in Medford, Long Town Cemetery in Applegate, and the Pheonix Pioneer Cemetery in Ashland. The Pheonix Pioneer Cemetery is under new management, Otis the Third and family, and has put up a new kiosk, metal arch, and is making new funding partners in the community.
- b) Cricket Soules – A dedication ceremony for three army veterans without headstones was done recently. The VA now has someone dedicated to working with historic headstones.
- c) Megan – Wrote in via Zoom chat wondering if there is a recommended software for cemetery records and mapping. Kuri Gill advised that the Cemetery Association of Oregon may have recommendations, but that there are many options available, so research will be needed to determine what will best suit their needs.

3. Disasters in Historic Cemeteries (Information)

(Topic starts at 15:00 and ends 1:21:15, Topic resumes at 1:37:32 and ends 1:48:46)

- a) Community Wide Disaster Resilience Planning – Melissa Graciosa, University of Oregon, Institute for Policy Research and Engagement (IPRE)
 - i) Oregon Heritage, in collaboration with IPRE has developed a community planning process for heritage resources that can be replicated in any community. The pilot project was in Cottage Grove and now the work is happening in Bend and Salem. Check out the examples, guidebook and orientation videos:
<https://www.oregon.gov/oprd/OH/Pages/DisasterPrep.aspx#CommunityPlanning>.
- b) Bureau of Land Management (BLM) Cemetery protection effort – Tony Saunders, BLM Archaeologist, Grants Pass Field Office
 - i) The 2020 effort was highlighted in the Oregon Heritage Exchange.
<https://oregonheritage.wordpress.com/2020/11/19/protecting-two-cemeteries-in-the-path-of-a-fire/>
 - ii) Tony shared his experience protecting heritage resources during the 2020 Oregon fires, the decisions that must be made, and resources that may or may not be available at the fire line.
- c) Value of Heritage Resources in Community Recovery- Kuri Gill
 - i) Resources that support heritage are critical in community recovery from disaster. From physical places to gather, to documenting and recording the disaster, to preservation of cultural resources, to helping emergency responders understand what is significant to the community, heritage resources are valuable tools for communities in and after disaster.
 - ii) The Commission discussed programs and resources in Oregon, such as Culture in City Reconstruction & Recovery, UNESCO, Value of Heritage in Disaster Resilience Report and Messaging Guide, Oregon Heritage Commission, Fact Sheet on Art & Culture: Helping People Before, During, and After Disasters, FEMA and other resources available on the Oregon Heritage Website.
- d) The Commission discussed specific ways they can support disaster planning for historic cemeteries.
 - i) Sending the Community Disaster Resilience Planning for Heritage Resources guidebook from IPRE to contacts within this community, sharing information at community gatherings, partnering with other agencies or districts utilizing the guidebook, getting sites ready with defensible space for people to gather post disaster, leveraging the high ground cemeteries for flood or tsunami evacuations, personally connecting to communities that have recently been disaster stricken, and cemetery grants.

Meeting adjourned @ 4:04 pm

Friday, October 11, 2024,

Location: Mildred Memorial Knipe Park, 16513 Elkhead Road, Oakland, OR

Tour: 9:00 am

The Friends of Mildred Knipe Memorial Park hosted a visit to this interesting historic site owned by Douglas County. There is a “lost” cemetery at the park which the Friends have worked to identify using ground penetrating radar (GPR). Patrick O’Grady, researcher and an archaeologist training in the use of GPR shared more information about remote sensing techniques in this work.
