What Happened at the First Set of Public Meetings?
At our first set of meetings in February 2015, we introduced the state parks in the Beverly Beach and South Beach Management Units and explained how the planning process will guide the vision and management of those parks for the next 15–20 years and beyond. We also asked members of the public to tell us what they value about Oregon’s Central Coast and its state parks. The meeting presentation and minutes can be found on the website at: www.southbevparksplan.com.

What Happened at the Second Set of Public Meetings?
At the second set of public meetings we presented summaries of existing condition assessments and reviewed opportunities and constraints for the parks as well as the management units as a whole. We also introduced and received comments on a set of guiding values for the Plan. Input at these meetings was helpful in identifying potential future development concepts. The meeting presentation and minutes can be found on the website at: www.southbevparksplan.com.

What Happened at the Third Set of Public Meetings?
At our third set of public meetings in July 2016, staff presented planning and development concepts for state parks in the South Beach and Beverly Beach Management Units. Over forty people attended one of three meetings in the Newport and Gleneden Beach areas and we received many thoughtful comments that helped inform the Final Draft Plan.

Upcoming Public Meetings - May 2017
At our final set of public meetings staff will present the draft plan and invite comments. The draft plan will include summaries of the assessments, public input, values, goals, and strategies for park management and natural resource conservation and development for the state parks in the South Beach and Beverly Beach Management Units. See reverse for dates and locations.
