

Submit a public comment on a rule

Oregon Parks and Recreation Department

Commenter name (if provided):

M J Basti

Date comment received:

July 20, 2025 06:43 PM

Commenter email (if provided):

unicycledog2@gmail.com

Location (if provided): {city}, {state}

Public comment:

With decrease federal funding of many services and projects I highly recommend any continued tax exempt properties be reinspected to verify the status of the historical property. Too often alterations are made for convenience that render a historical property no longer representative of actual historical significance. I am oppose to keeping properties on the tax exempt status without al current inspection and documentation.

I also oppose corporate ownership of historical properties just to avoid taxes.

Thanks for consideration of my perspective

M J