GOVERNMENT-TO-GOVERNMENT ANNUAL REPORT STATE LIBRARY COLLABORATION WITH OREGON TRIBES IN 2014

MaryKay Dahlgreen, State Librarian
December 23, 2014

During 2014, the State Library worked to implement a number of initiatives to strengthen our relations with Oregon tribes and to assist them with developing tribal libraries to serve tribal communities.

Statewide Database Licensing Program Participation

Four tribal libraries utilized access to the Statewide Database Licensing program in 2014. This program provides 24 library information databases (general reference, business, health, etc.) and the Learning Express Library test preparation database at no cost to tribal libraries. A tribal member is serving as a member of the Statewide Database Licensing Advisory Committee.

Resources in the Oregon State Library Collection Related to Oregon Tribes

The State Library maintains a bibliography of materials in the State Library collection related to Oregon Tribes and posts it on our website:

State Library Sponsored Trainings

Tribal library staff were invited to participate in all State Library-sponsored library workshops and training sessions presented during 2014.

Tribal Library Listservs

The State Library hosts a listserv for tribal library directors to facilitate communications from the State Library.

Promotion of Talking Book and Braille Library to the Oregon Tribes

The Oregon State Library's Talking Book and Braille Library is a free, federally-funded library service located in Salem, Oregon. It loans books and magazines in special formats to anyone who cannot see to read regular print, hold a book to turn its pages, or who has a physically-based reading disability. All of the lending is done free through the mail. Talking Books mailed information to the nine federally recognized Indian tribes regarding the services of Talking Books.

Training for State Library Managers and Staff

The State Library's Cultural Competency Committee arranged for ten members of our staff to visit the Grand Ronde Tribal Library on April 8, 2014. Our staff members were given a tour of the tribal library and an overview of the services, collections, and information about the community. Our staff also heard a presentation on the history and culture of the peoples. It was a very successfully and valuable event, which was featured in the Grand Ronde newsletter, Smoke Signals, in April.
