COMMUNITY SERVICES

Purpose

OYA Community Services oversees services for youth offenders placed in OYA's custody to promote reformation through accountability, participation in evidence-based treatment, school and job attendance, victim restitution, and community service. Services to youth in community settings are accomplished through partnerships with Oregon's county juvenile departments, community providers, and other stakeholders promoting effective communication, shared planning, efficient service delivery, and use of best practices.

Population Served

OYA's Juvenile Parole and Probation Officers (JPPOs) serve as case managers for all youth placed with OYA – those on probation or parole in communities, and those in close-custody facilities. In addition, JPPOs also provide case management services for DOC youth housed in OYA close-custody facilities. Youth typically range in age from 12-25. Case management services focus on protecting the public by reducing the risk of future criminal activity.

Services include:

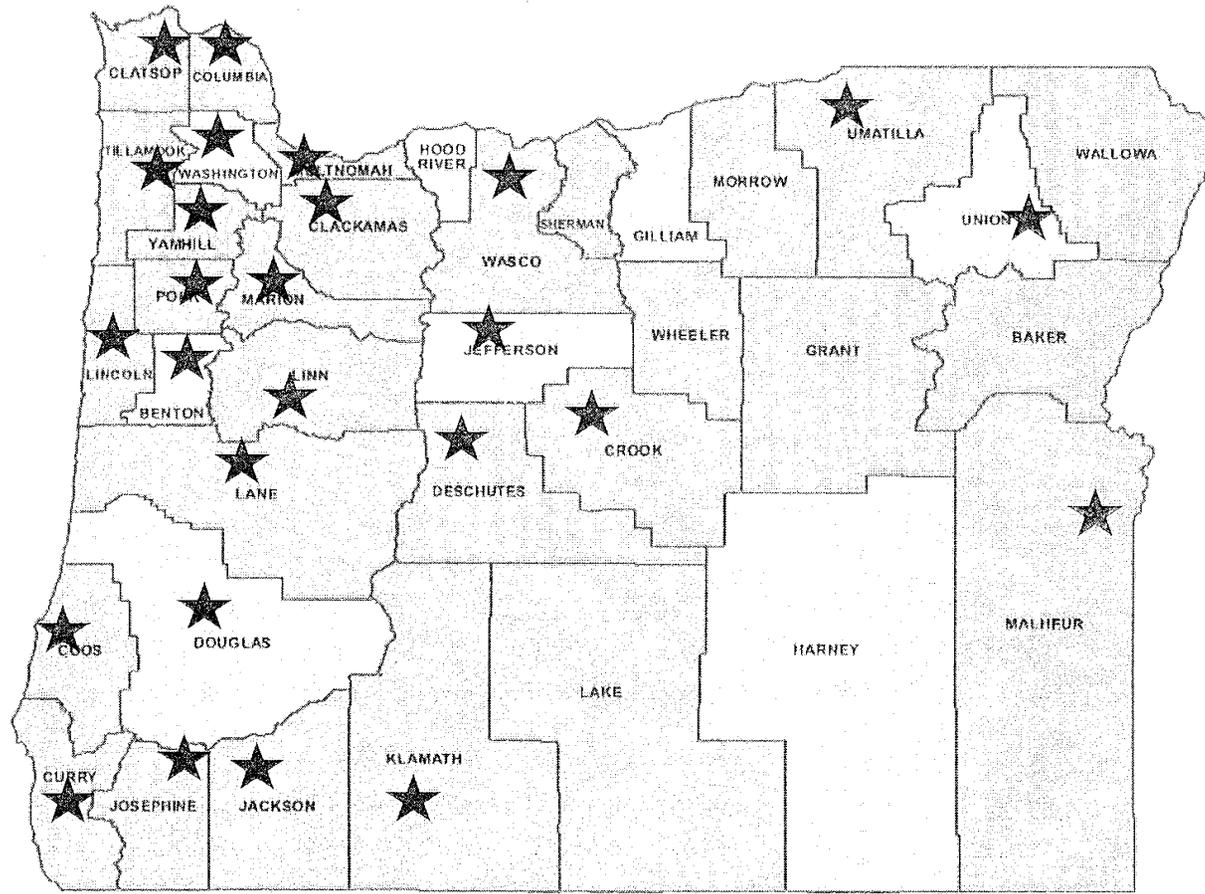

- Case management;
- Community supervision;
- Residential treatment and youth offender foster care;
- Individualized community services;
- Diversion, Juvenile Crime Basic Services, and Youth Gang Services; and
- Interstate Compact for Juveniles.

Parole and Probation Offices

OYA contracts with service providers throughout Oregon and operates 26 field offices to enable JPPOs to provide services and oversight to youth offenders in communities throughout Oregon. These JPPOs work with youth and community partners to ensure youth are receiving appropriate treatment, participating in required programming, and making progress toward maintaining a crime-free and productive lifestyle.

Budget Narrative

Community Services Organizational Structure

OYA provides reformation and public safety services in community settings through partnership with county juvenile departments and local public safety agencies. State assistance to local governments comprises 17% of the agency's Community Services budget. Purchase of services from residential Medicaid treatment providers and foster care providers comprises approximately 56% of the budget. State parole and probation case management and supervision services comprise 22% of the total program budget.

Budget Narrative

Community Services

OYA provides responsive service delivery and quality assurance using a comprehensive case plan and case audit process, which identifies the strengths and needs of each youth offender. Juvenile Parole and Probation Officers (JPPOs) administer the OYA Risk/Needs Assessment on all new youth offenders entering OYA on probation status to determine risk level and correctional treatment needs. This information is used to establish goals, objectives and interventions to reduce risk of further criminality. Community supervisors audit case plans and supervise activities. The risk assessments, case plans, and case audits are automated in the Juvenile Justice Information System (JJIS).

OYA and county juvenile departments maintain negotiated co-management agreements outlining protocols between the agencies. These agreements define the continuum of services and define the roles of respective agency staff. This increases the efficiency of OYA and county juvenile departments along the juvenile justice continuum.

Community Services Accomplishments

Operational enhancements in Community Services include:

- Implementation of evidence-informed case management, through Effective Practices in Community Supervision (EPICS).
- Initiation of linkages with OYA community resources and facilities as well as with county juvenile departments.
- Continued implementation of safety and security activities and provision of safety assurances for youth offenders through safety surveys.
- Implementation of the recently ratified Interstate Compact for Juveniles to enhance public safety for interstate supervision of delinquent youth and safe movements and returns of runaways.
- Implementation of a Web-based national data system for the Interstate Compact for Juveniles.
- Progress toward Key Performance Measure (KPM) compliance through concentrated strategies.
- Revised community staff positions to adequately describe roles related to evidence-informed case management.
- Implementation of pre-service training protocols, quality assurance audits, and enhanced use of JJIS (Juvenile Justice Information System) to monitor performance.
- Implementation of evidence-based practice compliance for funding to counties for Juvenile Crime Prevention (JCP) Basic, Diversion, and Youth Gang services.
- Implementation of Youth Incident Reports (YIR) in JJIS to track and address difficult challenges in community practices.
- Pilot of JPAS (Juvenile Provider Access System) to allow for residential treatment provider access to referred youth case information in JJIS.

Budget Narrative

Key Initiatives

- Assess and create strategies to enhance practices to ensure efficiencies and programs between OYA Community Services, Facility Services, and Program Support.
- Fully implement compliance for funding to counties for Diversion and Multnomah Youth Gang.
- Fully implement the OYA Performance Management System as it relates to Community Services. Develop local action plans and division action plans to address performance deficiencies.
- Through the Family Engagement Initiative, more effectively engage and involve families in youth reformation and re-entry.
- Continue to engage providers and stakeholders to map the community residential system to match youth needs as determined by the OYA Youth Reformation System.
- Participate in the statewide children's wraparound initiative to more effectively coordinate multi-system service delivery.
- Continue to work with the Oregon Department of Corrections and county community corrections agencies to ensure effective aftercare transitions of DOC youth terminating from OYA physical custody.

Parole and Probation Services

Purpose

Parole and probation services include case management and supervision for approximately 1,325 youth offenders committed by juvenile courts at any given time. Case management is accomplished through the development of an individualized case plan supported by risk-based supervision and services that continue until case termination. In addition, OYA Juvenile Parole and Probation Officers (JPPOs) provide case management and transition planning services to approximately 340 DOC offenders held in OYA close-custody facilities.

Services

The role of OYA's JPPOs is to:

- Provide evidence-informed case management for OYA youth offenders.
- Supervise and monitor youth offender compliance with court-ordered conditions.
- Review and assess youth offenders' risk/needs assessments.
- Coordinate all identified service needs through contracted providers.
- Develop and monitor, with the youth offender and his or her family and service providers, individual youth offender case plans.
- Ensure services are gender-specific and culturally appropriate.
- Work collaboratively with local school districts and ancillary supports to ensure transition to school programs and compliance with youth offender Individualized Education Plans (IEPs).
- Identify aftercare resources to facilitate successful transitions from facilities and residential treatment to community.
- Determine and apply appropriate levels of graduated sanctions.

Budget Narrative

- Coordinate quality assurance surveys at case termination.
- Coordinate and monitor restitution, community service and victim-specific activities.
- Work with county juvenile departments to ensure coordination and efficiencies.
- Provide case management and transition planning services for DOC offenders in OYA youth correctional facilities.

Community Placement Services

Residential and Foster Care Services

OYA uses residential and youth offender foster care services for youth who cannot remain in their homes because of public safety risk and treatment needs. These programs mitigate risk to the community by providing behavioral interventions in supervised and structured living environments. Residential and youth offender foster care services address youth offender behavioral issues and support youth offenders until they are able to return home or live independently.

Residential Treatment

OYA contracts for residential treatment services from public and private sector entities across the state. Types of services include:

- Residential treatment services (funded with a combination of General Fund and Medicaid support) to provide assessment, skill-building, counseling, structure, and therapeutic environments;
- Technical assistance for residential programs to support the use of evidence-based correctional treatment approaches;
- Assistance to contracted providers to develop performance measures and evaluations using evidence-based criteria;
- Independent living programs to provide supervised living environments for the growing number of older youth offenders transitioning to independence including supervision and room and board while a youth offender becomes employed and gains skills in living independently; and
- Short-term stabilization and intervention programs for youth offenders at risk of facility placement due to problems with behavior in other community-based settings. Services include targeted intervention for problem behaviors and assessment and evaluation of individual needs to assist in treatment and placement, if necessary.

Youth Offender Foster Care

OYA provides structured family living environments in the community through the use of youth offender foster homes across the state. Youth offender foster homes address youths' needs and assist in mitigating community risk. Defined standards, foster parent performance measures, and certification procedures ensure youth safety and enhance reformation. OYA has developed the following to ensure youth safety, accountability, and reformation:

- Self-directed training curriculum for foster parents to enhance skills while intervening with problematic youth offender behavior;

Budget Narrative

- New strategies and protocols to recruit, train and retain high-quality foster parents;
- Regular youth offender surveys to ensure a quality assurance and improvement process for physical environment and care standards of the homes; and
- Maintain a maximum of three youth offenders per home, with a goal of achieving one youth offender per foster home.

Multidimensional Treatment Foster Care (MTFC) addresses the varied social characteristics, public safety risk, and needs of OYA youth. OYA has implemented MTFC, a program model for youth offenders who need more treatment and intervention services than those provided in the youth offender foster care model. MTFC is evidence-based, focusing on comprehensive supports and services including in-depth training and ongoing professional oversight for foster parents.

Correctional Program Checklist

OYA has implemented an assessment process using the Correctional Program Checklist (CPC) to review residential resources' adherence to interventions and practices proved to be effective and evidence-based. During the 2011-13 biennium, the agency has continued to provide technical assistance and training opportunities to contracted residential treatment programs to help providers implement evidence-based correctional treatment programming. In addition, agency staff conduct reviews to ensure programs continue to meet requirements necessary for providing Medicaid Behavioral Rehabilitation Services (BRS) services.

Residential Capacity

During the 2011-13 biennium, Community Services developed additional community residential capacity based upon findings from a community mapping initiative that took place in 2010. This mapping initiative analyzed data trends of youth offender risk/needs and the availability of community residential resources to meet those needs. The additional residential capacity developed in 2011-13 focused on resources to divert young offenders from revocation back to OYA close-custody facilities and to provide short-term behavioral stabilization for OYA probation offenders.

Key Initiatives

OYA Community Services has implemented a number of program improvements including:

- Implement a redesigned training curriculum to better prepare foster parents to meet the risk and needs of OYA youth.
- Implement new strategies for recruitment of foster care providers to meet the agency's qualifications, standards, and criminal history background requirements.
- Implement a performance management system for foster care providers.
- Continue providing technical support to help programs use evidence-based treatment approaches.

Budget Narrative

- Adopt an additional Key Performance Measure through automated data collection.
- Implement an expansion of BRS-supported independent living programs as well as shelter capacity for both males and females.
- Provide oversight to expanded county-operated BRS capacity.
- Coordinate the agency's medical director/clinical director quarterly review of psychotropic medications of youth offenders in foster care settings.
- Use new research data on youth typologies and risk to recidivate, and working with provider stakeholders to better match residential treatment capacity to youth need.
- Evaluate program effectiveness and refine target populations for specific programs using predicted versus actual recidivism rates.

Community Placement Forecast Population Growth

The OYA Current Service Level for 2013-15 provides for a continuation of mandated community placement need, and corresponding workload adjustments in probation and parole services. Twice a year the Office of Economic Development (OEA) issues the Oregon Youth Authority Demand Forecast under Executive orders EO-98-06, 04-02 and 08-15. The current Demand Forecast shows a stable community placement need.

The 2011-13 Legislatively Adopted Budget included a 10% reduction in General Fund support for contracted Behavioral Rehabilitation Services. The Legislatively Adopted Budget for 2013-15 restores funding necessary to deliver community placements at the forecasted level of demand.

Individualized Community Services

Individualized community services provide a supplemental level of treatment and support services tailored to meet the individual needs and case plans of youth offenders.

- Sex Offender Transition provides ongoing reassessment of risk, treatment and supportive services to sex offenders returning to the community on parole status from close custody.
- Minority Youth Transition promotes positive reintegration from OYA close-custody facilities by establishing and enhancing pro-social connections between minority youth and their home communities.
- Reintegration/Transition services for youth moving toward emancipation include incrementally decreased supervision, vocational and life skill building, and job placement assistance.
- Wraparound services meet widely varied needs ranging from simple one-time services to complex, multi-disciplinary case management services.
- Treatment, mental health, urgent health care, and prescription medication services are provided for youth who reside in the community and are not eligible for the Oregon Health Plan or third-party insurance and have no other means of funding these services.

Budget Narrative

Intergovernmental Agreements

The agency has completed intergovernmental agreements with counties for OYA to provide individualized services funding assistance to local jurisdictions to serve high-risk county probationers. This assistance provides the local juvenile justice community with flexibility to purchase services and interventions intended to prevent commitment of youth to OYA probation.

Evidence-Based Services

Responding to the changing demographics of 18-25-year-old offenders under OYA community supervision, the agency developed a program that provides evidence-based interventions and re-entry services for youth offenders moving toward supervised independent living. Services such as incrementally decreased supervision, vocational skill building, and job assistance all play a part in this agency program.

Key Initiatives

OYA is refining a system of technical assistance and monitoring to ensure that youth offenders who require alcohol and drug, mental health, and sex offender treatment receive services from providers who use treatment approaches proved to be effective with youth offenders. The agency is enhancing its documentation requirements of outpatient treatment providers to ensure services are linked to case plan goals while continuing to meet good business practices. The agency also is increasing effectiveness for counties using individualized services in the use of evidence-based practices.

Diversion, Juvenile Crime Prevention Basic and Youth Gang Services

OYA provides funding to counties for delinquency prevention and intervention services to meet the needs of youth offenders who might otherwise be committed to OYA. The funds are provided to county juvenile departments through intergovernmental agreements.

- Diversion: Counties develop and operate local services designed to divert the highest-risk youth from placement in OYA close custody.
- Juvenile Crime Prevention Basic Services (JCP Basic): Counties enhance their basic graduated services and sanctions for youth referred to juvenile departments. The goal of these services is to prevent further offenses, thereby reducing recidivism.
- Youth Gang Services: Funding for Multnomah County and East Multnomah County Gang Intervention provides programs for gang-involved youth offenders, supports a variety of community services, and enhances supervision and case management.

Intergovernmental Agreements

OYA maintains intergovernmental agreements with counties for JCP Basic, Diversion, and Youth Gang services. Reductions during the 2001-03 biennium in JCP Basic, County Diversion, and Youth Gang funds reduced the state's capacity to effectively address juvenile crime at the local level and divert youth from OYA custody. The agency and the Legislature in subsequent biennia worked to restore funding to counties to address delinquency at the local level. OYA continues to work with counties to ensure that state-funded services are evidence-based, appropriately targeted, and documented in the Juvenile Justice Information System.

Key Initiatives

- Fully implement services tracking so that counties can monitor the progress of youth and the impact on outcomes.
- Participate with the Partners for Children and Families (PCF) to coordinate comprehensive community planning efforts for children, youth, and family services. OYA has worked with other state agencies including the Youth Development Council and community stakeholders to merge state planning and reporting requirements for counties.

Interstate Compact for Juveniles

In August 2008, a new Interstate Compact for Juveniles (ICJ) was approved by 35 states, effectively making it law. The new compact increases accountability and procedures for all member states to enhance public safety for movements and supervision of delinquent youth and safe movements and returns of runaways. SB 107 was passed by the 2009 Oregon Legislature and signed by the Governor, ratifying the new Interstate Compact in Oregon. On July 1, 2010, the Interstate Compact for Juveniles was ratified by 47 states. The Governor made executive appointments to the State ICJ Advisory Council in February 2010. The Council held its first meeting in 2010 and meets regularly throughout each year to review and advise OYA on ICJ matters.

The Interstate Compact for Juveniles (ICJ) is a compact between states governing the movement of juveniles across state lines. Oregon is a member of the compact, and OYA administers the ICJ for Oregon. The ICJ requires procedures for the authorized movement of youth offenders between states and for the return of runaways, absconders, and escapees who are found in other states, and provides a system by which juvenile offenders who cross state boundaries are supervised on probation or parole. Youth governed by the compact include delinquents under the supervision of OYA or county juvenile departments as well as runaway youth. The compact is intended to ensure that adjudicated juveniles are provided supervision and services, public safety interests are addressed, victims of youth offenders are protected, and youth offender movement is coordinated among participating states. The Compact also provides for the safe return of youth offenders to and from Oregon.

County juvenile departments and OYA staff provide evaluation and approval of potential placement resources for youth from other states requesting placement in Oregon as well as the supervision of out-of-state youth after approved placement in Oregon. Conversely, when approved, OYA and juvenile departments may move Oregon youth offenders to other states for appropriate supervision. In the case of runaway youth and children, these staff also provide for safe transport pursuant to compact rules. All movements and supervision/placement requests are coordinated centrally by the OYA Office of ICJ.

Key Initiatives

- Continue training state and local juvenile justice staff, as well as the judiciary, on the new ICJ.
- Participate in implementation of a national Web-based information system, the Juvenile Interstate Data System (JIDS), to provide more efficient and effective processes to manage interstate movements of juveniles.
