Introduction

Oregon's juvenile justice community is committed to providing effective and efficient services to promote public safety, ensuring justice for victims, and preventing youth from repeating criminal behavior. Understanding the recidivism rate for youth referred to the juvenile justice system is one way to measure juvenile crime and the impact of intervention efforts around the state.

Definition of recidivism for this report:

As a measure of public safety, recidivism is defined as a new criminal referral.

A criminal referral is a law enforcement report to a juvenile department alleging one or more felony or misdemeanor acts (offenses).

Contents of this report

This report contains statewide and county-specific measures of recidivism for 2024 based on the measurement of criminal activity as a gauge of community safety. The report selects youth who had a criminal referral in 2024 and tracks whether they have any new criminal referrals in the 12 months following that referral. Tracking all youth who had a referral in 2024 for a full 12-month period requires 2025 referral data to be complete.

All data for this report comes from Oregon's Juvenile Justice Information System (JJIS). There are no outside data sources used and the report includes only criminal referrals from the State of Oregon.

Findings and Limitations

Summary Findings:

- Total statewide youth in 2024 are 6,084.
- The overall 12-month statewide recidivism rate is 26.5%.
 - The 12-month statewide chronic recidivism rate (3 or more referrals) is 5.3%.

Comparison to Year End Referral Reports:

Referral counts for these reports are based on felony and misdemeanor criminal referrals in 2024 and subsequent felony and misdemeanor criminal referrals during the following 12 months. The year-end Youth and Referral reports for the same year also include non-criminal violation referrals. After removing non-criminal referrals, the referral counts may be slightly different from the 2024 Referral reports because new data entry may occur after the publication of the Referral reports.

Notes about the information

Counts: Data is grouped by the county where the referral originated. The report counts the total number of youth who had a criminal referral originating in that county in the reporting year. The report sorts the results into two primary groups:

- No Subsequent Referrals: Youth who had no subsequent referrals from any Oregon county during the following 12 months.
- Subsequent Referrals: Youth who had one or more subsequent referral(s) from any Oregon county during the following 12 months. This group is further divided into two groups:
 - Youth with one or two Subsequent Referrals
 - Youth with three or more Subsequent Referrals

Percentages: Percentages are rounded to the nearest whole number and therefore may not add up to 100%.

Demographics: The JJIS Steering Committee recognizes that reporting race, ethnicity, sex, and gender in JJIS may not accurately represent everyone, due in part to a need to comply with federal reporting requirements. We respect all individuals, but also acknowledge and regret we cannot capture how individuals may self-identify in these areas.

- Race and Ethnicity: The JJIS Steering Committee defined Race/Ethnicity reporting categories based on available data. Race is recorded by the juvenile department based on police reports and youths' self-reporting. These reports categorize youth by the race that is recorded in JJIS unless the recorded ethnicity is Hispanic. When the recorded ethnicity is Hispanic, the youth is categorized as Hispanic, regardless of race.
- Sex: The options for reporting sex in JJIS currently include Male, Female, Non-Binary, and Unknown. There are current state and national discussions about new ways to document sex that are respectful and inclusive of all. The JJIS Steering Committee will continue to engage in those discussions and make updates in this area as available.

Readers are cautioned against making comparisons between counties. Many factors can influence recidivism rates including the size of the county (small populations can lead to significant variations in results), local laws and practices, and local law enforcement resources.
