Oregon Public Service Retirement Plan (OPSRP) Pension Program Free and Clear Divorce

Section A: Member and alternate payee (AP) information (Type or print clearly in dark ink.)

Member name	PERS number (optional)
AP name

If a member or retiree is awarded his/her OPSRP Pension Program benefits free and clear, check the box that applies, attach this form as an exhibit to your court order, and submit it to the courts. Send your final certified court order to PERS. No other forms are required. However, if beneficiary changes or restrictions are needed, please complete the OPSRP Pension Program Beneficiary Changes/Restrictions Due to Divorce form, and attach the form as an exhibit when you submit the court order to the courts.

Section B: Non-retired member benefits free and clear

Member is awarded his/her future OPSRP Pension Program benefits free and clear.

Section C: Retiree benefits free and clear

Retiree is awarded his/her current OPSRP Pension Program benefits free and clear.

Note: The following death benefit restrictions apply if no beneficiary changes are made.

If the retiree predeceases the AP and the AP was named as the beneficiary at the time of retirement, the AP is awarded 100 percent of any monthly survivorship benefit.

If the retiree predeceases the AP and the AP was not named as the beneficiary at the time of retirement, the person named as beneficiary is awarded 100 percent of any monthly survivorship benefit.

If the AP predeceases the retiree and the AP was not named as the beneficiary at the time of retirement, the person named as beneficiary is awarded 100 percent of any monthly survivorship benefit. Nothing will be payable to the AP's beneficiary or estate.
