GENERAL INFORMATION

OAR 863-014-0090 allows a "sole principal real estate broker" (a principal real estate broker who conducts professional real estate activity not in conjunction with other principal real estate brokers) to authorize a real estate broker associated with the sole principal broker to conduct the sole principal broker's professional real estate activity, including the supervision of any real estate brokers and property managers associated with the sole principal broker. The associated real estate broker accepting supervisory authority must have acquired at least three years of active experience as a real estate broker. The authorization of the associated broker to supervise may not exceed 90 days. READ THE COMPLETE RULE ON OUR WEBSITE FOR DETAILS.

A sole principal broker is required to submit this form to the Oregon Real Estate Agency PRIOR to the authorized period.

The authorizing sole principal broker and the associated broker accepting the supervisory responsibility must sign this form affirming that they are jointly responsible for all professional real estate activity conducted during the authorized period. This form MUST be submitted prior to the authorization period.
