This form notifies the Agency when one registered business name (RBN) has majority of voting stock or controlling interest in another RBN. Subsidiary business organizations may use the same principal broker or property manager, provided that the individual registering the business name submits proof to the Agency that the principal broker or property manager actually manages and controls each subsidiary organization.

Controlling ownership interest means owning 51 percent or more.

SECTION 1

REGISTERED BUSINESS NAMES

List the RBNs. Both organizations must be registered with the Agency. The Registered Business Name application is on the Agency's eLicense online system, available at www.oregon.gov/rea.
