RULE SUMMARY

Creates new rules and modifies existing rules for the Oregon Retirement Savings Program. Specifically, the rules: 1) clarify the definitions in certain joint employment relationships, 2) allow for non-payroll contributions from participating employees, 3) clarify timing related to contributions, 4) allow for dollar-based contributions, and 5) provide a delegation of authority to the executive director. The revisions also update and add new defined terms, and adjust language to clarify existing rules.

Interested parties are welcome to attend in person or call-in to the hearing. The call-in information will be posted on the Oregon State Treasury Retirement Savings Program website (http://www.oregon.gov/treasury/ORSP/Pages/ORSP-Rulemaking.aspx) in advance of the hearing. We request interested parties wishing to call-in and provide oral comment to contact Kim Olson, OST Rules Coordinator, in advance of the hearing. The Rules Coordinator will enter the interested party into a queue so we can accept comments from both those in the room and on the phone in an orderly fashion.

The Agency requests public comment on whether other options should be considered for achieving the rule’s substantive goals while reducing negative economic impact of the rule on business.
