

MASTER DISCLOSURE CERTIFICATE

This Master Disclosure Certificate (the "Certificate"), dated February 27, 2019, is executed and delivered by the State of Oregon, acting by and through its State Treasurer (the "State") in connection with implementation of the Oregon School Bond Guaranty Act (the "Act") by which the timely payment of principal and interest on certain general obligation bonds (the "Guaranteed Bonds") issued from time to time by Oregon school districts is guaranteed by the State pursuant to the provisions of the Act (the "Oregon School Bond Guaranty Program").

Section 1. Purpose of Certificate. This Certificate is being executed and delivered by the State for the benefit of registered and beneficial holders of Guaranteed Bonds and to assist Underwriters of such Guaranteed Bonds in complying with paragraph (b)(5) of Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 15c2-12 (17 C.F.R. § 240.15c2-12), as amended (the "Rule").

Section 2. Comprehensive Annual Financial Report. The State hereby agrees to provide or cause to be provided at least annually to the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board (the "MSRB") through its EMMA ("Electronic Municipal Market Access") site, the Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (the "CAFR") of the State of Oregon for the prior fiscal year. The CAFR will be available no later than 9 months after the end of the State's fiscal year (presently June 30). The CAFR will include audited financial statements of the State prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles as established by the Government Accounting Standards Board as in effect from time to time; provided, however, that if the CAFR is not available within 9 months after the end of the preceding fiscal year, unaudited financial statements will be provided with audited financial statements to follow when available. The CAFR may be provided by way of cross-reference to other documents previously provided to the MSRB. If the cross-referenced document is a final official statement within the meaning of the Rule, it shall be available from the MSRB EMMA site.

Section 3. Material Events. Subject to limitations of Section 8 below, the State agrees to provide or cause to be provided, in a timely manner, to the MSRB, within ten business days after the occurrence of the event, notice of the occurrence of the following events but only with respect to its guaranty of any Guaranteed Bonds:

- (1) principal and interest payment delinquencies;
- (2) non-payment related defaults, if material;
- (3) unscheduled draws on debt service reserves reflecting financial difficulties;
- (4) unscheduled draws on credit enhancements reflecting financial difficulties;
- (5) substitution of credit or liquidity providers, or their failure to perform;
- (6) adverse tax opinions, the issuance by the Internal Revenue Service of proposed or final determination of taxability, Notices of Proposed Issue (IRS Form 5701-

TEB) or other material notices or determinations with respect to the tax-exempt status of the Guaranteed Bonds, or any other material events affecting the tax status of the Guaranteed Bonds;

- (7) modifications to rights of holders of the Guaranteed Bonds, if material;
- (8) bond calls, if material, and tender offers;
- (9) defeasances;
- (10) release, substitution, or sale of property securing repayment of the Guaranteed Bonds, if material;
- (11) rating changes;
- (12) bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or other similar event of the State; (Note: For the purposes of the event identified in this paragraph 12, the event is considered to occur when any of the following occur: The appointment of a receiver, fiscal agent or similar officer for an obligated person in a proceeding under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code or in any other proceeding under state or federal law in which a court or governmental authority has assumed jurisdiction over substantially all of the assets or business of the obligated person, or if such jurisdiction has been assumed by leaving the existing body and officials or officers in possession but subject to the supervision and orders of a court or governmental authority, or the entry of an order confirming a plan of reorganization, arrangement or liquidation by a court or governmental authority having supervision or jurisdiction over substantially all of the assets or business of the obligated person.);
- (13) the consummation of a merger, consolidation, or acquisition involving the State or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the State, other than in the ordinary course of business, the entry into a definitive agreement to undertake such an action or the termination of a definitive agreement relating to any such actions, other than pursuant to its terms, if material and;
- (14) appointment of a successor or additional trustee or the change of name of a trustee, if material.
- (15) incurrence of a financial obligation of the State, if material, or agreement to covenants, events of defaults, remedies, priority rights, or other similar terms of financial obligation of the State, any of which affect security holders, if material; and
- (16) Default, event of acceleration, termination event, modification of terms, or other similar events under the terms of the financial obligation of the State, any of which reflect financial difficulties.

“Financial Obligation” means a (a) debt obligation; (b) derivative instrument entered into in connection with, or pledged as security or a source of payment for, an existing or planned debt obligation; or (c) guarantee of a debt obligation or any such derivative instrument; provided that “financial obligation” shall not include municipal securities as to which a final official statement (as defined in the Rule) has been provided to the MSRB consistent with the Rule.

The State intends the words used in the immediately preceding paragraphs (15) and (16) and the definition of Financial Obligation in this Section to have the same meanings as when they are used in the Rule, as evidenced by SEC Release No. 34-83885, dated August 20, 2018.

Notice of events listed in (8) and (9) above need not be given any earlier than notice of the underlying event, if any, is required to be given to registered or beneficial owners of affected Guaranteed Bonds. The State may from time to time choose to provide notice of the occurrence of certain other events, in addition to those listed above, if, in the judgment of the State, such other event is material with respect to the Guaranteed Bonds, but the State does not undertake any commitment to provide such notice of any event except those events listed above.

Section 4. Failure to File CAFR. The State agrees to provide or cause to be provided, in a timely manner to the MSRB notice of a failure by the State to provide the CAFR on or prior to the time set forth in Section 2.

Section 5. Dissemination Agent. The State may, from time to time, engage or appoint an agent to assist the State in disseminating information hereunder (the "Dissemination Agent"). The State may discharge any Dissemination Agent with or without appointing a successor Dissemination Agent.

Section 6. Termination of Obligations. Pursuant to paragraph (b)(5)(iii) of the Rule, the State's obligation to provide annual financial information and notice of material events, as set forth above, shall terminate if and when the State no longer remains an obligated person with respect to the Guaranteed Bonds which shall occur upon either redemption in full of the Guaranteed Bonds, or legal defeasance of the Guaranteed Bonds. In addition, and notwithstanding the provisions of Section 9 below, the State may rescind its obligations under this Master Disclosure Certificate, in whole or in part, if those portions of the Rule that required the execution and delivery of this Master Disclosure Certificate are repealed or are declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 7. Enforceability and Remedies. The State agrees that this Master Disclosure Certificate is intended to be for the benefit of registered and beneficial holders of the Guaranteed Bonds and shall be enforceable by or on behalf of any such holder; provided that, the right of any holder to challenge the adequacy of the information furnished hereunder shall be limited to an action by or on behalf of holders representing at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of Guaranteed Bonds. Any failure by the State to comply with the provisions of this undertaking shall not be a default under the Act or under the documents pursuant to which any Guaranteed Bonds are issued. This Master Disclosure Certificate confers no rights on any person or entity other than the State, holders of the Guaranteed Bonds, and any Dissemination Agent.

Section 8. Limitation on Scope of Undertaking. Notwithstanding anything expressed or implied to the contrary herein, the State makes no undertaking to provide financial information, operating data or material events disclosure on behalf of or with respect to Oregon school districts participating in the Oregon School Bond Guaranty Program. Any such information will be provided according to the terms of separate continuing disclosure undertakings executed and delivered by such school districts. The State is not responsible for the adequacy, accuracy or timeliness of such information, and any failure by a school district to comply with its undertaking shall not constitute a breach by the State under this Master Disclosure Certificate. The State shall provide only the CAFR and material events disclosure relating to the State's guaranty of Guaranteed Bonds.

Section 9. Amendment. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Master Disclosure Certificate, the State may amend this Master Disclosure Certificate without the consent of holders of the Guaranteed Bonds under the following conditions:

- (1) The amendment may only be made in connection with a change in circumstances that arises from a change in legal requirements, change in law, or change in the identity, nature, or status of the obligated person or type of business conducted;
- (2) This Master Disclosure Certificate, as amended, would have complied with the requirements of the Rule at the time of the primary offering, after taking into account any amendments or interpretations of the Rule, as well as any change in circumstances; and
- (3) The amendment does not materially impair the interest of holders of the Guaranteed Bonds, as determined either by parties unaffiliated with the State (such as nationally recognized bond counsel), or by approving vote of holders representing at least sixty percent (60%) of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the Guaranteed Bonds.

The State shall provide to the MSRB, notice of any amendment which changes the accounting principles followed by the State in preparation of its annual financial information. The initial annual financial information after the amendment shall explain, in narrative form, the reasons for the amendment and the effect of the change in the type of operating data or financial information being provided.

Section 10. Choice of Law. This Master Disclosure Certificate shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Oregon, provided that to the extent this Master Disclosure Certificate addresses matters of federal securities laws, including the Rule, this Master Disclosure Certificate shall be construed in accordance with such federal securities laws and official interpretations thereof.
