The Commission charged Jirsa with gross neglect of duty on April 27, 2012. After review of the matters alleged, Jirsa and the Commission agree that their respective interests, together with the public interest, are best served by a stipulation to certain facts, the imposition of a suspension of her right to apply for licensure, followed by a four (4) year probation and monitoring period.

STIPULATION OF FACTS

1. The Commission has licensed Jirsa since August 28, 2006. Jirsa held an Initial Teaching License with an endorsement in Spanish, issued August 28, 2006, that expired August 28, 2009. Jirsa holds educator licenses in New Mexico, as a K-12 Spanish teacher and a Level-Three Administrator, which expires in 2016. Jirsa applied for her Administrative License on February 24, 2012, her application is currently pending. During all relevant times, Jirsa was employed by the Mosier Community School (Charter) within the North Wasco School District (NWSD).

2. On February 14, 2012 the Commission received a message from the North Wasco School District indicating that Jirsa's name had returned on the state staff position report as an "Error". NWSD indicated they had subsequently learned that Jirsa did not hold a valid Oregon teaching license, administrative license, or charter school registration. NWSD reported that Jirsa had been working as the Mosier Community School Principal since July of 2010.

3. The Commission conducted an investigation and determined that Jirsa contacted TSPC staff by telephone in April of 2010 regarding Jirsa seeking information about applying for an Oregon Administrative License. Jirsa was sent both an application and a related check sheet so she could make application. Jirsa did not make application to TSPC until February 23, 2012. The Commission's investigation indicates Jirsa had worked as the Mosier Community School Principal from July 2010 until relieved of administrative duties on February 22, 2012; a period of approximately 19 months.
