After a review of the matters alleged, the parties have agreed that their respective interests, together with the public interest, are best served by a stipulation of certain facts and conclusions of law. This agreement sets out the facts upon which the parties have agreed and the sanctions to be imposed, and the basis for the Commission's order. In entering into this Stipulation, Sherer waives her right to a hearing to contest any of the findings set forth below.

Sherer agrees and stipulates that substantial evidence exists in the record to support the following findings of fact by the Commission:

1. On October 22, 1999, Sherer pled guilty and was convicted of the crime of Theft I, a misdemeanor, by the Circuit Court of Oregon, Multnomah County.
2. Sherer had unlawfully claimed unemployment benefits between August 24, 1997, and January 11, 1998, while employed by Portland Public Schools as a coach.

If the Commission does not approve this Stipulation, the matter will be returned for a hearing, and neither Sherer nor the Commission shall be bound by any matters in this Stipulation.
