WHEREAS the above-reference matter is presently scheduled for hearing before the Teacher Standards and Practices Commission ("Commission") on April 17, 1997, and

WHEREAS Charles David Goodman ("Goodman") and the Commission have agreed that he will surrender his certificate voluntarily pursuant to OAR 584-50-027 in lieu of proceeding to a hearing,

NOW THEREFORE, Goodman and the Commission agree to stipulate that the following facts are true:

1. Goodman currently holds an Oregon teacher license.
2. Goodman was employed as an elementary school teacher by Silverton School District from 1977 until 1996.
3. In September, 1995, the District directed Goodman not to contact JS, an employee of the District with whom Goodman had been romantically involved in the past.
4. Despite repeated requests from JS to Goodman to cease contact with her, Goodman continued to contact JS.
5. To stop the unwanted contact, on September 27, 1996, JS applied for a Stalking Protective Order. Although declining at that time to issue a formal Order, Judge Haas gave Goodman a verbal directive to cease all future contact with JS.
6. Thereafter Goodman continued his unwanted contact with JS.

7. To stop the unwanted contact, JS filed for and received a formal Stalking Protective Order signed October 23, 1995, prohibiting Goodman from having any contact with JS.

8. In October, 1995, the District disciplined Goodman for violating the September directive.

9. On January 22, 1996, Goodman was charged with two counts of violating the Stalking Protective Order when he allegedly made telephone contact as well as visual and physical contact with JS.

10. On February 13, 1996, Goodman pleaded guilty to the charge of violation of a Stalking Protective Order, based on his telephone contact with JS. Goodman was sentenced to 24 months of supervised probation, required to pay a fine of $245, and ordered to have no contact with JS or her family.

11. Goodman subsequently resigned from employment with the District, effective at the end of the 1995-96 school year.

12. Had this matter proceeded to a hearing, substantial evidence exists for the Commission to find as follows:

- (1) that Goodman has continued to contact JS, despite the terms of his probation, and
- (2) that the facts supporting the conviction and other intervening circumstances are substantially related to Goodman's fitness to serve as a teacher.

13. Based on the above stipulated facts, Goodman agrees to surrender his Oregon teaching license.
