

BEFORE THE TEACHER STANDARDS AND PRACTICES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF OREGON

In the Matter of the Teaching License of
GARY STEPHEN WIESE

DEFAULT ORDER OF DENIAL OF LICENSURE

On or about June 25, 2002, the Teacher Standards and Practices Commission (Commission) received a Application for Educator License Form C-1 from Gary Stephen Wiese (Wiese) requesting renewal of a Standard Teaching License. Mr. Wiese responded "no" to Character Question 7, "Have you ever been disciplined by any public agency responsible for licensure of any kind, including but not limited to educational licensure?" Mr. Wiese's response constituted a false statement directly related to licensure. The Commission adopted a Stipulation of Facts, Public Reprimand and Order disciplining Mr. Wiese on January 19, 2000. The Executive Director took action to notify Mr. Wiese of intent to deny his license, and to inform him of his opportunity for hearing. The notice was sent via U.S. First Class Mail and U.S. Certified Mail Receipt 7001 0320 0005 0740 8681. The certified mail receipt was signed and dated on July 30, 2002.

The Notice of Opportunity of Hearing, dated July 25, 2002, and signed by Victoria Chamberlain, Executive Director, stated:

"You, Gary Stephen Wiese, are entitled to a hearing on the Commission's denial of your license. In denying your license the Commission has followed and will follow the procedures set out in ORS 342.176 and 342.177, in conformance with ORS 342.143(4). If you want a hearing, you must file a written request for a hearing with the Commission within 21 days of the date of this notice. Attached to this notice is a copy of the procedures, right of representation and other rights of parties relating to the conduct of a hearing as required under ORS 183.413(2)."

Mr. Wiese did not request a hearing. The Commission, therefore, finds Mr. Wiese in default and enters the following findings of facts, conclusion of law and order based on the files and records of the Commission.
