PER CURIAM

It has come to our attention that the disposition in Randall v. SAIF, 307 Or App 6, 476 P3d 98 (2020), mistakenly “affirmed” the court’s prior disposition rather than reversing the board’s order. The disposition is hereby withdrawn on our own motion and corrected to “Reversed and remanded.” The prevailing party designation, which misidentifies respondents as the prevailing party, is corrected to “Petitioner,” and petitioner is awarded costs.

Reconsideration allowed on court’s own motion; disposition of the former opinion withdrawn; reversed and remanded.
