Youth-Led Grant RFA
Questions and Answers

1. Do the Youth leading the proposed Project need to be participants in our current YDD-funded program (ROG), or could other youth served by our program lead a Project that benefits all Youth served by our program (including YDD Youth)? Is there a requirement for Youth currently served through YDD to be involved in some capacity?

   No, Youth involved in the proposed Project do not need to be participants in currently funded YDD programming. Other Youth may apply for a different Project that serves any Youth or communities in Oregon. See RFA Section 1.3 Eligibility.

2. We have been meeting with some of our Youth leaders to discuss the RFA and explore potential Project ideas. Some have suggested purchasing computers for students who do not have access to one or incorporating computers into another proposed Project. Would purchasing Chromebooks or other computers be an allowable Grant expense?

   Yes, this would be an allowable expense. See RFA Section 2.4.1 Project Services and Section 3.2.4.1 Prohibited Costs.

3. Would meals and refreshments provided to student participants during a Youth-led leadership summit be an allowable expense under the Supplies, Materials, Curriculum and Licenses category?

   Yes, this would be an allowable expense. See RFA Section 3.2.4.1 Prohibited Costs.
