2.0 Commission Reports

2.1 Director Bauer covered the following in the Director Report: Update regarding the grant transfer from Governor’s Office to HECC. In 2019, both Oregon Volunteers and AmeriCorps will celebrate their 25th anniversary. Planning for the AmeriCorps Life After Event has begun with dates in May being considered. Life After event anticipated to be held in Salem, and will be following a simpler format than in events past due to staffing limitations. Director Bauer announced that Senior Corps, and the CNCS State Office, in partnership with Oregon Volunteers, will be hosting a free, one-day event on March 13th, "Elevating the Role of National Service in Disaster Response and Recovery,” from 8:30am to 5:00pm at the Crowne Plaza in Portland, Oregon. Director Bauer shared an upcoming campaign for AmeriCorps “Be the Greater Good.” More information should be available in the coming months, and encouraged commissioners to go to the AmeriCorps website to view, and share to help build outreach efforts.

2.2 Geoffrey Hickox, CNCS State Office Director, shared the following as part of his director report: Provided an update regarding the transition from a State support structure to a regional structure. The regional office for Oregon will be in California. Phase I of the restructuring begins in fall 2019. The Oregon office is part of Phase II. Director Hickox facilitated a discussion of how this transition may impact relationships and team dynamic.

3.0 Equity Lens Discussion

3.1 Co-Chair Todd led a discussion on equity, and the importance of having that as part of the commission decisions. The commission members reviewed several examples of current equity statements, and process documents from: HECC, The State Service Commission, Metropolitan Family Service, Portland Community College-Office of Equity & Inclusion, and Multnomah County-Office of Equity and Inclusion. The discussion led to a request by Commissioner Snead to have additional trainings to help the commission to understand where each member is currently in equity, and once that is determined, then the development of a framework can occur. Co-Chair Todd suggested a resource currently used at Compass Compact, a 50 question assessment tool, which the commission may want to consider. Director Bauer proposed Lunch and Learn opportunities to further this discussion. Suggestion given to have 2-3 trainings/discussion prior to the summer commission meeting covering varying topics. Co-Chair Schubert suggested having the training called: DEI Experience. (DEI=Diversity, Equity, Inclusion)

4.0 Mapping & Outreach Project
4.1 CNCS State Office Director Hickox and OV Director Bauer led a discussion on where in Oregon AmeriCorps has a presence. A map of Oregon with the AmeriCorps offices and Commission presence was provided. Noted was Eastern and Southern Oregon where there was less representation and office locations. Bauer and Hickox shared their first outreach trip will be on 1/22/19 to Jackson County, where the United Way will coordinate an event for local nonprofits interested in learning more about national service opportunities Commissioner Fieldman suggested Bauer and Hickox reach out to include UCAN AmeriCorps Program Director Jordan Jungwirth.
