

Exotic Phytophagous Snail Certification

Please complete and return this form as soon as possible. Your cooperation will ensure we can serve you in a timely manner and prevent shipping delays. Thank You.

The Oregon Department of Agriculture is required to certify that all Christmas trees shipped to the states listed below have been visually inspected and certified by an ODA official to be free of brown garden snail (Cornu asperum) and/or other phytophagous snails. All growers shipping Christmas trees to the following states must request a certificate indicating that trees are free of phytophagous snails:

Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Mississippi, North Carolina, Tennessee, and West Virginia

Shipments to North Carolina require a pre-notification to be sent to: Joy.Goforth@ncagr.gov. Please include copies of shipping certificates and invoices.
