Agenda

9:00 Welcome and introductions

Icebreaker: what are your desired outcomes from PSP?

9:15 Discussion of program strategic plan:

- Discuss overall goals of the program
  - What should the overall goal(s) of the program be? Should it be to gather additional data on pesticide and water quality issues with different land uses? Or should it be to go to areas where we know there are problems or likely problems and reduce them?
- Review updated & edited list of strategic plan questions

10:15 Break

10:30 Case studies of PSPs part 1:

- Yamhill (Palmer/Cozine Cr) PSP - Kevin Masterson, Luke Westfall, & Yamhill SWCD

11:15 Discussion about stakeholder engagement and education efforts - Kevin Masterson and Kaci Buhl

- How do we get a diverse stakeholder group, particularly in areas with diverse crops and diverse users of pesticides?
- How can we engage types of growers whose crops span beyond PSPs?
- Success stories from diverse land use areas
- What does effective education look like? What are the effective mechanisms to get action?

12:00 Working lunch

12:15 Case studies of PSPs part 2:

- South Umpqua PSP - how was the area selected as a pilot, what have the data shown and where do we go from here? - Kevin Masterson & Thomas Whittington

Following the case study presentation, advisory committee members will be asked for input/recommendations regarding the future of the South Umpqua PSP.
