tobacco retail licensure, Tobacco 21 and Tobacco Master Settlement Agreement talking points. Background: The retail environment is an important setting for tobacco prevention policy. The tobacco industry spends $1 million an hour on marketing and promotion of their products in retail stores. Oregon is one of nine states that do not require retailers to have a license to sell tobacco.

Tobacco Reduction Advisory Committee (TRAC) Meeting Agenda

Decision and Action Steps:
BREAK	2:00-2:10 (10)
4) Health Communications/Prevention & Cessation Initiatives	2:10-2:40 (30)
TPEP
Objective: Review the cessation and prevention media efforts and discuss how they contribute to the Tobacco Prevention and Education Program's policy work.
Background: The prevention initiative is designed to help Oregonians eliminate exposure to secondhand smoke, prevent youth from initiating tobacco use, and identify and eliminate tobacco-related disparities in all populations. The cessation initiative is designed to help Oregon smokers quit. Together, these comprise the Smokefree Oregon brand, which supports local voices and conversations within a statewide education effort.

Decision and Action Steps:
5) Competitive Tobacco Grants UpdateTPEP	2:40-2:50 (10)
Objective: Inform members of the current and upcoming coming funding opportunities related to tobacco prevention and recruit reviewers.
Background: Strategies for Policy And Environmental Change, Tobacco-Free (SPArC Tobacco-Free) was released on December 28, 2015 and closed on January 27, 2016. American Lung Association of the Mountain Pacific and the American Cancer Society will be participating in the review of SPArC applications. The focus of this funding opportunity is the tobacco retail environment. Sustainable Relationships for Community Health (SRCH) is a future funding opportunity that will focus on partnerships between local health departments and Coordinated Care Organizations and the establishment of referral processes related to tobacco cessation and chronic disease self-management programs.
