

Oregon Acute and Continuing Care Facility List

Health facilities, entities and certain individual providers are governed by federal and state laws. This matrix shows whether specific facility and entity types are subject to federal law, state law, or both federal and state laws. Support for regulation of these programs comes from licensing, certification or registration fees and federal Medicare funds.

Type of Facility/Entity/Individual	# in Oregon	State License	Medicare Certification	Regular Surveys	Investigate Complaints
Ambulatory Surgery Centers (ASC) -Specialize in providing surgery, pain management, and some diagnostic services in an outpatient setting.	93	X	X	4 yrs.	Yes
Birthing Centers (BC)- Non-hospital settings where childbirth is planned and occurs away from a private residence. These facilities must be licensed and approved by the State to provide care.	14	X		3 years	Yes
Caregiver Registries (CGR)- Represent independent contractors who provide skilled in-home care.	8	X		3 years	Yes
Community Mental Health Centers (CMHC)- Provide outpatient mental health services, 24-hour emergency care services, day treatment or other partial hospitalization, and screening for patients being considered for admission to state mental health inpatient facilities.	0		X
Comprehensive Outpatient Rehabilitation Facilities (CORF)- Provide outpatient diagnostic, therapeutic and restorative services for the rehabilitation following injury, disability or sickness.	0		X
End-Stage Renal Disease Treatment Facilities (ESRD) / Outpatient Renal Dialysis Facilities (ORDF)- Provide outpatient renal dialysis services using machines that act as artificial kidneys by removing waste from blood and removing excess fluids from the body when kidney failure or disease prevents the kidneys from doing so.	76	X	X	42.9 months	Yes
Extended Stay Centers (ESC)- Provide post-surgical and post-diagnostic medical and nursing services to patients recovering from surgical procedures performed in an affiliated Ambulatory Surgical Center (ASC).	0	X
Federally Qualified Health Centers-Provide outpatient primary care to medically-underserved populations and areas.	141		X	No	Yes±
Hemodialysis Technicians (Hemo Techs)- Are certified individuals responsible for operating dialysis machines that act as artificial kidneys by removing waste from blood and removing excess fluids from the body when kidney failure or disease prevents the kidneys from doing so.	616	X		2 years	Yes
Home Health Agencies (HHA)- Provide skilled medical nursing services and other therapeutic services to patients in their homes.	69	X	X	36.9 months	Yes

Hospice Agencies-Includes both facilities and programs that provide care for people with terminal illnesses.	61	X	X	3 years	Yes
Hospitals (including Acute Care, Critical Access and Psychiatric Hospitals)- Provide medical and surgical treatment and nursing care for sick or injured people.	65	X	X	5 years	Yes
In-Home Care Agencies (IHC)- Provide non-medical services using caregivers.	181	X		2 years	Yes
Nontransplant Anatomical Research Recovery Organizations (NARRO)- Engage in the recovery and distribution of anatomical material from donors for research or educational purposes but not for anatomical transplants or therapy.	5	X		2 years	Yes
Organ Procurement Organizations - Tissue Banks & Eye Banks (OP)- Non-profit organizations responsible for the evaluation and procurement of deceased-donor organs for transplantation.	189	X*		No	Yes
Outpatient Physical Therapy or Speech Pathology Services (OPT/SP)- Use therapeutic exercise, functional training, manual therapy, adaptive services and modalities to treat patient needs.	3		X	7 years	Yes
Portable X-Ray Suppliers (PXS)- Provide x-ray equipment that can be brought to a patient.	3		X	7 years	Yes
Rural Health Clinics (RHC)-Provide outpatient primary care services and basic laboratory services in non-urban rural areas that have received a federal healthcare shortage designation.	100		X	7 Years	Yes
Special Inpatient Care Facilities (SICF)- Provide inpatient care in specialized settings such as rehabilitation centers, college infirmaries, chiropractic facilities, freestanding hospice facilities and others.	4	X		3 years	Yes

* Must be federally registered with the Food and Drug Administration and with the Organ Procurement and Transplantation Network.

 Deemed facilities are not surveyed regularly and complaint investigations at these facilities must be authorized by CMS.

± Complaint investigations must be authorized by CMS.